

Mr. Jeff Kahl

It is with privilege that I recommend Evangelist Will Galkin for special ministry meetings. He has done an outstanding work over the last several years in revival meetings, school camps, youth retreats and in leadership positions. Will has shown humility and a servant's spirit toward those who have invited him to speak. I count Brother Will and his dear wife, Christy, as our personal friends. They will encourage your people and they will meet the needs of your ministry.

As I have contemplated the type of speakers I would like to have in our ministry, Will Galkin is one of those men who can make a difference. The young people enjoy him because he is understandable, yet direct; he is personable, yet pointed; he loves them and it shows. Plus, he has associated himself with other godly evangelists and ministries who have trained him and invested in his life ministry. Because of his teachable spirit and his desire for personal growth, I believe God has given him maturity beyond his years. If you should have him come, you'll get more than a preacher, you'll get a friend. I have scheduled Evangelist Will Galkin for special events and will continue to do so because God's hand is upon his life, his family, his message and his ministry.

To God be the Glory,

Jeff Kahl
